SECTION C : READING & COMPREHENSION (10 marks)

Passage 1

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions:

Success is often misunderstood as the direct result of talent, intelligence, or luck. However, a closer observation reveals that persistence and adaptability play a far more crucial role. Individuals who succeed are not necessarily those who never fail, but those who treat failure as feedback rather than defeat. In fact, repeated setbacks often refine judgement, strengthen resilience and foster creativity. Moreover, the fear of failure can be more limiting than failure itself. When individuals avoid risks to protect their image, they miss valuable opportunities to grow. True progress, therefore, lies in stepping beyond comfort zones and embracing uncertainty with a willingness to learn.

Q.16) What is the central idea of the passage? (1 mark)

a) Talent is the most important factor for success
b) Failure should be avoided at all costs
c) Persistence and learning from failure lead to success
